Welcome to the NetLicensing Wiki

Here you will find resources that will help you learn about NetLicensing, including the current specification, documentation, implementation status, as well as a repository of demos and resources that take advantage of NetLicensing.

Please help us improve this wiki and keep it up-to-date, by leaving your comments and suggestions on the comments section of any page of this wiki.

On the left you'll find the quick navigation tree (desktop version), and below are some links you can begin with.
